

Scholarships: Finding Free Money for College

College is expensive so any way you can pay without breaking the bank is worth exploring. There are lots of options even if you're not a star academic or athlete. Scholarships: Finding Free Money for College will teach you ways you can discover more money for school. This seminar covers topics including:

- Understanding the importance and ease of using a scholarship search engine
- Examining a variety of scholarship resources
- How to create a winning scholarship essay
- Key tips on applying for scholarships

This session is led by Heather Gaumer, Director and Assistant Region Head of the Midwest Team at Sallie Mae. Heather has over eighteen years of experience in higher education and the financial aid industry, including involvement with several financial aid and financial literacy nonprofit organizations and associations. Prior to her time at Sallie Mae, she served as director of admissions and associate director of financial aid at two colleges.

Join us for this FREE session to learn how to find, apply, and improve your chances of securing scholarships.
